FOR AN INTRODUCTION TO THIS REPRINTED SERIES, SEE VOLUME I.

PREFACE.

This volume includes the whole of the records contained in the list of the Records of the Foreign Office published in 1914 (Lists and Indexes No. XLI) and continues that list to the year 1878.

The extension of the date to which these records are open to public inspection has necessitated the printing of a list to cover the period from 1837-1878, and it has been thought advisable to publish a new complete list rather than a supplement to the existing one.

The present volume therefore contains a catalogue of official papers and books (including those of British embassies and consulates abroad) from the establishment of the Foreign Office as a separate department of state in March, 1782, to the year 1878 inclusive, the latest date to which papers are at present open to inspection by students. As there was no actual break between the F.O. and its predecessors, the Offices of the Secretaries of State, some of the volumes contain papers of dates earlier and later than March, 1782. These volumes have not been broken up and are contained in this list. It may be noted that "King's Letter Books" contain copies of letters as early in date as 1710, and in "Foreign Office Miscellanea" are to be found some official collections which date from the 17th century.

A certain number of volumes were kept apart when the records were originally numbered and, when put in under their dates, made extra volumes, thus interrupting the continuity of the numbering. For the most part they had originally been kept distinct as relating to special subjects. They were taken out again when list XLI was compiled and put at the end of the regular series and called "Supplementary." This title has been changed in the present volume to "Supplement to General Correspondence" (F.O. 97).

The principal classes of records fall under the following heads:—

1. General Correspondence (Abyssinia to Würtemberg).
2. Supplement to General Correspondence.
3. Great Britain and General.
4. Slave Trade.
5. King's Letter Books.
6. Letter Books—Public Offices.
7. Treaties (Protocols and Ratifications).
8. Miscellanea.
9. Seals.
10. Chief Clerk's Department Correspondence.
11. Embassy and Consular Archives. (~~Temporarily removed to Cambridge, but arrangements where good cause is shown can be made for their inspection.~~) See also Supplementary Volumes for records of earlier date than 1878.
12. Archives of Commissions.
13. Private Collections.

Descriptions of the various classes will be found in the Guide to the Public Records by M. S. Giuseppi.

For historical and other reasons some changes and modifications in the titles of several classes have been made in this new list. In the section General Correspondence in list XLI, America (F.O. 4 and F.O. 5) becomes America, United States—Series I (F.O. 4), and America, United States—Series II (F.O. 5). Central America (F.O. 15) becomes America, Central, and Guatemala. The order of the sections Germany (Army in), Germany, and German States, have been changed to Germany, Germany (Army in), and Germany, States; Holland is now Holland and Netherlands; Italian States (F.O. 43) becomes Italian States and Rome; Morocco (F.O. 52) becomes Morocco—Series I: New Grenada (F.O. 55) has been changed to New Grenada and Colombia; Prussia (F.O. 64) has been changed to Prussia and Germany; Sicily (F.O. 70) has been changed to Sicily and Naples; Switzerland (F.O. 74) becomes Switzerland—Series I; Tripoli (F.O. 76) becomes Tripoli—Series I, and Tunis (F.O. 77) becomes Tunis —Series I.

Under Treaties an additional class F.O. 92 Continent—Treaty Papers is included.

Miscellaneous (F.O. 95) becomes Miscellanea—Series I, and a class Miscellanea —Series II (F.O. 96), is added.

Seals (F.O. 365), and Chief Clerk's Department Correspondence (F.O. 366) are new classes.

In the Embassy and Consular Archives minor alterations in titles, etc., have been made. Bavaria, Cologne, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Hanover, Prussia (in this list Prussia and Germany), Saxony and Stuttgart have been brought together as sub-headings under the title Germany, with the addition of Hesse-Darmstadt and Baden, which did not appear in the former printed list. Sicily and Naples, Turin and Sardinia, and Tuscany and Rome, have been similarly dealt with and now appear as sub-headings under Italy.

In no cases have class numbers been altered.

A list of Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, 1782-1878, and a key to the Foreign Office class numbers are appended.

This list of records has been prepared for press by Mr. E. C. Matthews of the Public Record Office under the general superintendence of Mr. R. C. Fowler, an Assistant Keeper of the Records.

* Official correspondence and papers of Jean Antoine de Mesmes, Comte d'Avaux, fourth son of Jean Antoine, Président de Mesmes, and himself nephew of another diplomatist, Claude de Mesmes, Comte d'Avaux (1595-1650). He was born in 1640 and died, unmarried, in Paris on 11 February 1709. F.O.95/543-549 and 560-578 are in eighteenth century binding, with a coat of arms impressed on both boards. The remainder, viz. F.O.95/550-559, are bound in an earlier, probably contemporary, style. In the case of F.O.95/543, 560 and 575-578, the original back-panels of a previous binding (very similar to that of F.O.95/550-559) may have been preserved.

† Certain correspondence of this mission was published in Paris in 1752-1753 by the Abbé Edmé(?) Mallet from a record (in two volumes) of the French Foreign Office, under the title, Négociations de Monsieur le comte d'Avaux en Hollande, depuis 1679, jusqu'en 1684 (6 volumes).

$ At the end is a letter on a private matter from [Michel?] Le Tellier [chancelier and garde des sceaux], of 4 October 1684.

* Received from H.M. Consul at Bucharest.

/ The Consulate at Larissa was closed in 1881. Until that date there was a Consul for Volo and Larissa with headquarters at Volo. Both these places were then in Turkish territory: in 1881 they were ceded to Greece.

$ This Court was established under the Treaty with the United States for the Suppression of the African Slave Trade in 1862 (F.O. 93/8/37). It closed in August 1870 in accordance with a convention with the United States of the same year.

The Cowley Papers were deposited in the Public Record Office for safe-keeping in 1942, and subsequently presented by Sir Victor Wellesley, K.C.M.G., to the Foreign Office in two groups in 1948 and 1952 respectively.

They consist principally of papers accumulated by Henry Wellesley, First Baron Cowley (1773 - 1847), and his son, Henry Richard Charles Wellesley, First Earl and Second Baron Cowley (1804 - 1884), during their diplomatic careers, and relate particularly to Austria, France, Spain, and Turkey. There are also some papers of Colonel the Hon. Frederick Wellesley (1844 -1931) as Military Attaché in Russia, and miscellaneous material collected by him for his published works.

A key to their arrangement is appended.

A final group of these Papers similar in content to those received earlier, was bequeathed to the State in 1954 under the terms of the will of Sir Victor Wellesley. A list has been made of this group (Nos. 290-304) and the Key on the next sheet amended accordingly.
